Cook the brown rice

- Half-fill a medium saucepan with water. Add brown rice and a generous pinch of salt.
- Bring to the boil, over high heat and cook, uncovered, until tender, 25-30 minutes.
- Drain rice and return to the saucepan.

Get prepped

- Meanwhile, finely chop cucumber and baby spinach leaves. Thinly slice onion and radish.
- SPICY! This spice blend is hot! Add less if you're sensitive to heat. In a medium bowl, combine pork mince, fine breadcrumbs, the egg, Mexican Fiesta spice blend and a pinch of salt.
- Using damp hands, roll heaped spoonfuls of pork mixture into small meatballs (4-5 per person). Transfer to a plate.

Custom Recipe: If you've swapped pork mince for beef mince, make beef meatballs in the same way as above.

Caramelise the onion

- In a large frying pan, heat a drizzle of olive oil over medium-high heat. Cook onion, stirring, until softened. 5-6 minutes.
- Reduce heat to medium. Add the balsamic vinegar, brown sugar and a splash of water and mix well. Cook until dark and sticky, 3-5 minutes.
- Transfer caramelised onion to the brown rice along with zesty chilli salt. Toss to combine.
   Season generously with salt and pepper.

Cook the meatballs

- Wash and dry the frying pan, then return to medium-high heat with a generous drizzle of olive oil. Cook meatballs, turning, until browned and cooked through, 8-10 minutes (cook in batches if your pan is getting crowded).
- Remove pan from heat, then add mild chipotle sauce and a splash of water, tossing meatballs to coat.

Custom Recipe: Cook beef meatballs in the same way as above.

Make the salsa

 In a second medium bowl, combine radish, cucumber, baby spinach and a drizzle of white wine vinegar and olive oil. Season to taste.

Serve up

- Divide caramelised onion brown rice between bowls.
- Top with chipotle pork meatballs and cucumber salsa.
- Dollop with Greek-style yoghurt to serve. Enjoy!
